Week 1
Life Skills: Scrapbook page

- Memory: Close book and see who remembers all the objects.
- Choosing: Do you like this or that?
- Guessing: This is yellow and nice to eat. What is it?
- Comparing: How are they the same? How are they different?
Once there was a boy called Lunga. He was eight years old. (How old are you?)
But he was a very lazy boy. (Oh dear. You are not lazy are you?)
He liked to sit under a tree in the shade all day and do nothing. (Look at the picture. Can you see Lunga sitting under that tree?)

But Lunga’s legs and arms and mouth got tired of his laziness. (Show me your legs … and arms … and mouth.)
His arms said, “Lunga, move your arms. Go and help your mother wash the clothes”. But Lunga did not move.
His legs said, “Lunga, move your legs. Go and help your father dig in the ground”. But Lunga did not move.
His mouth said, “Lunga go and help your little brother read the book”. But Lunga did not move.
Lunga lay in the sun and did nothing.
His legs and arms and mouth said, “We must teach Lunga a lesson. We must teach him not to be lazy. If he won’t work, we will also stop working.”

Lunga didn’t notice that his legs and arms and mouth had stopped working. He just lay in the sun and did nothing.
Then sun started to go down. It began to get cold. Lunga began to get hungry. Time for supper, he thought happily, I must go inside. Lunga said to his legs. “Move legs, I must go inside now.” But his legs said, “No Lunga. We are not working anymore”. Lunga got a little scared. He said, “Move arms, I want to wave to my brother to come and help me”. But his arms said, “No Lunga. We are not working anymore”. Lunga got even more scared. He said, “Move mouth. I must shout to my mother to come and help me”. But his mouth said, (What do you think his mouth said?) “No Lunga. No I am not working anymore”. Poor Lunga. He could not move his legs, or his arms, or his mouth! (What will he do?)
The sun went down and suddenly it got very dark and cold. Lunga could see his mother and father and brother in the house but he couldn’t move. (Poor Lunga.) He heard his mother calling, “Lunga Lunga. Where are you? Come in for supper!” (I wonder what will happen? Will Lunga have to stay outside in the dark all night? What do you think?) Lunga began to cry. “Please legs and arm and mouth, please start working again. I am cold and hungry. I want to move. I will never be lazy again.” His legs and arms and mouth felt sorry for him. So they said, “Alright Lunga. We will work again. But you must stop being lazy.” “Thank you, legs and arms and mouth,” said Lunga. “I will never, ever be lazy again.”
Then Lunga jumped up and ran as fast as he could to the house, waving his hands and shouting, “Wait for me everyone. Wait for me! I’m coming”.
Shared Reading routine

1. Tidy desk.
2. Move to mat.
3. Sit in position.
4. Read.
5. Move to desk.

Week 2
Life Skills

Read the poster together.
- What is the poster about? Which part tells us that?
- What do the numbers tell us?
- What is happening in each picture? Why must we do that?
- What must we do first? Next? Then? After that? Last?
Week 2

- Point to the word can.
- Where do we begin reading the words?

Day 3: Responding to the story
- Show me what Lily/Thabo/Spot can do. (actions)
- Miming game: Learner does an action. Others have to guess.
- Partners: Hello, my name is … I can … .
- Repeat the action rhyme together (see TG page 14).
Make a music shaker

You need:
- small objects
- clean bottle with a cap
- paper funnel

What to do:
1. Put funnel into top of bottle.
2. Pour objects into bottle, until half full.
3. Tighten the cap.
4. Shake it up!
Animals can dance

Week 3
Listening and Speaking

Listen and talk
- What animals do you see dancing?
- Who is not dancing?
The boys can dance.

Week 3
Shared Reading
Read the whole story with the learners every day.

Day 1: Comprehension
• Read the whole story.
• Explain how a photograph is different from a drawing.
• Ask:
  – What kind of dance is this?
  – Have you seen people dance like this?
  – Where/when?

Day 2: Decoding
• Re-read the story with the learners, stopping after each page.
• Point to the picture. Point to the words.
• How many words do you see on this page? (count and clap)
• Where do we begin reading the words?
• Point to the words can/boys.
The girls can dance.
Week 3
Shared Reading

Day 1: Comprehension
- What kind of dance are each of these children doing?
- Have you seen people dance like this?
- Can you dance like this?

Day 2: Decoding
- Re-read the story with the learners, stopping after each page.
- Point to the picture. Point to the words.
- How many words do you see on this page? (count and clap)
- Where do we begin reading the words?
- Point to the words can/boys/girls in the story.

Day 3: Responding to the story

I used all my colours!

Bongani, 7 years old
A good night’s sleep

You need sleep to stay healthy and happy!
You need 9–12 hours sleep a night.

Things that help you sleep better:
• go to bed at the same time every night
• do quiet activities before bedtime (no screens!)
• sleep in a quiet, dark room

Read the text with the learners.
• Discuss why we use bullet points in lists of facts, like on this page.
• What helps us sleep well? (a regular bedtime and wake-up time; a calming bedtime routine; sleeping with a soft toy, as in the picture, or a special blanket)
• What disturbs our sleep?
Week 8
Shared Reading
Read the whole story with the learners every day.

Wash your hands

1. Wet your hands with clean water. Turn off the tap so you don’t waste water.

2. Apply soap. Rub your hands with soap for 20 seconds (the time it takes to sing happy birthday twice).

3. Wash the front and back of your hands.

4. Wash between your fingers.

5. Rinse your hands with clean water.

6. Dry your hands with a towel.

Week 9
Life Skills

Read the poster together.
• Why do you think the pictures are numbered?
• Why must you scrub for 20 seconds?
• How long is 20 seconds?
• Why do we switch the tap off after we have wet our hands?
Time to get clean, Ezra!

Week 9
Shared Reading
Read the whole story with the learners every day.

Day 1: Comprehension
- Oh no! What is Ezra the elephant doing?
- What does his Mom say?
- Which other animals can you see?

Day 2: Decoding
- Show me the title of this story.
- How many words in the title? How many begin with capital letters?
- Point to the word clean? How many letters in clean?

Time to get clean, Ezra!
“Ow! Ow! Ow!” cries Ezra.
Mom rinses Ezra.

“Oh! Oh! Oh!” cries Ezra.
Week 9
Shared Reading

Day 1: Comprehension
- Is Ezra happier now?
- How can you tell?
- What does he say?
- What three thing did Mom do to get Ezra clean?

Day 2: Decoding
- How many sentences on this page?
- Which sentence has the most words?
- Point to the word dries. How many letters?
- Identify any words beginning with the phonic sound of the week.

Day 3: Responding to the story
- Class discussion:
  - How do animals and children get dirty?
  - Do you wash yourself or does someone help you?
  - Do you feel better when you are clean? Why/why not?
- Movement: Getting clean
  - Pretend you are all baby elephants. Use your “trunks” (arms). First scrub yourself ... now rinse with cold water ... now dry yourself with a big fluffy towel. Show me on your face how you are feeling.

Ezra is clean again.
