It’s a dog’s life
Group-guided reading

Before reading
- Page through the story the learners will read. Talk about the illustrations.
- Ask them to predict what the story will be about; based on the title and the pictures.
- Introduce new or difficult words prior to the learners reading the story.
- Make word cards to introduce new vocabulary. (See the list of new vocabulary in the back inner cover.)

First reading
- Learners should read the text individually.
- Learners should read silently or they can ‘whisper-read’ the text.
- Move from one learner to the next, requesting each learner to read a section of the text aloud.

Discussion
- Ask comprehension questions based on the text.
- Focus on phonics, sight words and vocabulary.
- You will find the activities in the back of this book useful to guide the discussion. (Select appropriate activities for the level of the learners.)

Second reading
- On later days, let learners reread the book, either in pairs or alone.
- Focus on fluency, grammar and vocabulary.
- Let learners complete the group-guided activities which are included in the back of this book. (Select appropriate activities for the level of the learners.)

Let learners do a role play if the text lends itself to it.

Learners should do the group-reading activities after reading the story.
Let learners work in groups to complete the appropriate group-reading activities included in the back of the book. They should not write in this book. Written activities should be done in their exercise books.
It's a dog's life
Today Abby and Lebo got onto the school bus. Poor Ben could not get onto the bus.

“No Ben, you can’t come on!” said Lebo. “No dogs allowed!”
Today Abby and Lebo went to the library. Poor Ben could not go into the library.

“No Ben, you can’t come in!” said Abby. “No dogs allowed!”
Today Abby and Lebo went to the beach. Poor Ben could not go onto the beach.

“No Ben, you can’t come with us!” said Abby. “No dogs allowed!”
Today Abby and Lebo went to play in the park. Poor Ben could not go into the park.

“No Ben, you can’t come in!” said Abby. “No dogs allowed!”
Poor Ben sat under the tree at the gate. “Grr!” said Ben. He waited and waited. Ben fell asleep. Zzzzzz ... Then he started to dream.
What did Ben dream?

Ben dreamed he was on the bus.
"I will sit on the front seat of the bus," said Ben.
Ben looked out of the window and enjoyed the ride.
Ben dreamed that he was in class. He sat in the front of the class, between Abby and Lebo.

“I can’t wait for playtime,” said Ben. “And then it will be lunchtime!”
Ben dreamed he was digging in the sand and surfing the waves.

Ben was having a good time.

“Life is great!” he shouted.
Then Ben dreamed he was in the park with lots of other dogs. There were big dogs and small dogs and long dogs and short dogs.

Ben jumped on the swing. “Swing, swing!” he sang.
Ben went round and round on the merry-go-round. He went up and down the slide. He went up and down on the see-saw. Then Ben dug in the sandpit. Ben had a great time.
And then . . .

Lebo and Abby came to the gate. "Wake up Ben! We are going home now," said Lebo.

"Huh? Wake up?" said Ben. "Do you mean I was dreaming?"

"Oh no! It's a dog's life!" thought Ben.
Group reading activities

1. Look at the pictures.
   Tell your friend what is happening in each picture.
   Tell your friend which picture should be first, second, third and last.
   Retell the story to your friend using the pictures.

The CAPS requires teachers to allocate some time each day for focused group-guided reading. In group-guided reading, teachers guide learners of a similar reading level, to read the same book, in a group. The reading session should include a range of word attack skills and comprehension strategies that children require when reading.

Reading effectively also requires “text talk” between the teacher and learners, and amongst the children in the group. These books include a number of “text talk”, comprehension and other related activities to help teachers direct group reading in their classes.
